

TLT Weekend

The Amazing Race 6 – TLT Edition

This event is a special REWARD weekend for only those Pathfinders who are active participants in the Teen Leadership Training program (9th grade through 12th grade). In order to attend this special activity the Pathfinder must be registered with the conference as to their status in the Teen Leadership Training program. NO EXCEPTIONS! All TLTs must be accompanied by staff from their club in the correct ratio of male staff to male Pathfinders and female staff to female Pathfinders. Staff members are expected to participate in the operation of the program. Please make other arrangements for staff children (non-TLT) and spouses who are not participating as staff.

DATE: December 2-4, 2011

TIME: Check-in time will be on Friday at 5:00 PM
First appointment will be at 8:00 PM
No supper will be provided on Friday. Please plan to eat on your own

PLACE: Cohutta Springs Camp

LIMIT: All registered and active TLTs as defined above

BRING: Normal camping gear, except tents and cooking gear. We will be sleeping indoors (dormitory style). All males and all females will have separate sleeping quarters. The following meals will be provided: Sabbath breakfast, Sabbath lunch, Saturday supper, and Sunday breakfast. No Friday supper will be provided.

COST: $50.00 per attendee (TLT and staff)

ACTIVITIES: The activities for this event are designed to challenge the TLT's knowledge of Pathfinder skills and demonstrate their ability work with other individuals to form a cohesive team and successfully complete the tasks encountered. Expect the unexpected!! This program is a weatherproof program; ALL activities will take place in the out-of-doors, regardless of weather conditions. Come prepared for the worst and all will be fine.
