

Georgia-Cumberland Conference¹
of Seventh-day Adventists

Prohibited Georgia-Cumberland Conference (GCC) activities are:

- Private/leased Aircraft
- Tackle Football
- Bungee Jumping
- Skate Boarding
- Motorcycles, All Terrain or motorized Vehicles (3-wheel & 4-wheel)
- Rock Climbing, Repelling, Climbing Walls, Ropes Courses*
- Parasailing
- Hay Rides
- Trampoline, Teeter Boards, Springboards, Mini-tramp, Reuther Board, or any other rebounding device unless specific coverage has been purchased in advance*
- Fireworks
- Firearms
- Snow Skiing & Snow Boarding – are not prohibited, but helmets must be worn & care should be taken during these activities

* Property, Accident and/or Liability coverage for equipment and damage caused by the equipment to property and/or persons participating are the responsibility of the property owner not the church or GCC.

 Accident and/or Liability insurance for this activity must be purchased before participating in the activity. Failure to purchase coverage means you have none.

NOTE: This list is not inclusive. There may be other activities not listed that do not qualify for General Liability or Miscellaneous Accident coverage through Adventist Risk Management. For additional information: GCC 800-567-1844 – Neil Brady at ext. 357 for Church activities, or Rick Claus at ext. 354 for School activities.

04/06/10

¹ Activities that are listed as exclusion on a current GCC insurance policy, or activities requiring participants to purchase additional insurance coverage before participating in the event.